Footnotes:

- <sup>1/</sup> The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- <sup>2/</sup> Because April 30 falls on Saturday and July 31 falls on Sunday, these filing deadlines are extended to May 2 and August 1, respectively.
- <sup>3/</sup> File the April 30 and October 31 reports if contributions totaling $10,000 or more are made to state officeholders or committees primarily formed to support or oppose any state officeholder during the period January 1 through March 31, or July 1 through September 30, respectively.
- <sup>4/</sup> In addition to paper reports, a committee must file electronically if the committee makes contributions or expenditures totaling $50,000 or more in a calendar year. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- Late independent expenditure reports or late contribution reports may be required if independent expenditures or contributions totaling $1,000 or more are made during the 16 days prior to an election held in 2005. Contact the FPPC for specific requirements.
- Contributions to state candidates and to committees that make contributions to state candidates are subject to contribution limits. Contributions to ballot measure committees controlled by state candidates, and to some committees that feature state candidates in advertisements, are also subject to contribution limits. Contact the FPPC for specific information.

As of the date of this publication (10/04), the 2004 Addendum to FPPC Campaign Information Manuals C, D, and E contains the most recent information on campaign disclosure requirements. Legislative amendments to the Political Reform Act may go into effect that will change information contained in the 2004 Addendum and this filing schedule. Be sure to check the FPPC web site (www.fppc.ca.gov) for updated information.
